Summerland

Written by Chester Hogoboom, Thomas L. Nunes and Alex Kizanis
Additional Musicians:
Alex Kizanis-keyboards

I've been working way too much, I'm out of time and out of touch
My vacations so overdue and I'm thinking about what I might do
There's a place out on the coast, with all the things I like to do the most Yea there's something about this time of year, it's got a different kind of atmosphere

I see my white feet walking in the sand, I hope my boss really understands
I've taken all that I can stand and I'm Going out to Summerland

As far as the eye can see I've got my blue pacific right in front of me
Living life with my flip flops on, I've got my board shorts and I'm already gone
You know that Jeannie's got a new bikini that she's just dyin' to wear
And little Ralphie says he'll come along, because he's never really been anywhere

They've got the women, the beach and the beer
Is there something I'm missing here?
Working life is getting out of hand
I'm going out to Summerland

What's it gonna take now? If we're gonna make our destination
Ain't gonna be no hesitation

There's a place out on the coast, a place where things are really taken slow
Somewhere warm where the girls are tan, and a beachside bar where I know the band
Everybody's got a place in mind, a magic place when it's time to unwind
There's something about this time of year, it's just a different kind of atmosphere

I should have done this weeks ago
But its' better late than to never show
I've taken all that I can stand and I'm
Goin out to Summerland
Goin out to Summerland

Safe to Say

Written by Chester Hogoboom and Thomas Nunes
Additional Musicians:
Steve Tracy/ Guitar

She comes on like a little girl lost
I took a look in her eyes
I knew our stars were crossed
She's got a new way of living
Oh no she never things twice no more

Safe to say she wants to love you
Don't you know it's Safe to say
Safe to say, she's not below or above you
Don't you know it's safe to say

She's got a face so full of wonder
At the touch of her hand ooh, I knew I'd fallen under
She makes my nights worth living
Oh no never think twice, just go

Safe to say she wants to love you
Don't you know it's Safe to say
Safe to say she's not below or above you
Don't you know it's safe to say

She moves into the firelight
Watching her shadow dance
I knew that something changed
We got a knew way of living
Oh no, we never think twice just go, just go

Safe to say she wants to love you
Don't you know it's Safe to say
Safe to say she's not below or above you
Don't you know it's safe to say

Wastin' A Day

Written by Chester Hogoboom and Thomas Nunes
Additional Musicians:
Ernie Watts/ Saxophone
Alex Kizanis/ Keyboard
Stan Sine/ Harmonica

Wastin' a day, walk through the dunes until the ocean comes in to view
Thinking of you, the sun is so hot and the sky is an icy blue

Wastin' a Day, dreaming about a place where I wouldn't be Wastin' a way, any clear thought would be an epiphany

Close to my heart
You're in my hiding place
Where should I start?
Because you, you were so incredibly pleasing

I start to fall, freeform and fumbling, laughing down through it all
Down to the sea, the waterline is the right place for me to be

Still in my heart,
You're in my hiding place
Where can I start?
When the truth is so hard to face

La la la la la, la la la la la la laaa

Runaway Days
I don't know where I'm going; I just know that it's far away

Wastin' a Day, The air is so hot and the sky is an icy blue

Wastin' a Day
Wastin' a Day

Pieces

You said you'd always love me, no matter what
Always be there for me, that's what I thought
I gave you everything, that's all I've got Gone Forever Gone Forever-more away away

What's this feeling now, I've got inside
One more heartache that I just can't hide
One more promise, one more lie
All Together all Together now away away

I'm not gonna worry anymore
Things that I've been hoping for
Like lost headlights down a lonesome highway

Hey you were just so here and now
Living life so high and wild
I never thought I could be broken hearted

You left me in pieces, whole lot of pieces, broken in Pieces, falling away

You said I was your thirst, I was your heart
Right from the very first right from the start
How did we ever grow so far apart?
You stopped trying, now I'm hiding out away away
I don't think I'll be staying here
There's nothing now that you're not near
And I don't want to think about it

Fate was on our side until now
Why we met seems different somehow
I guess I'm blown away by these feelings

You left me in pieces
Whole lot of pieces
Broken in pieces
Since you went away

Velvet Elvis

Written by Chester Hogoboom and Thomas Nunes

Additional Musicians:

Stan Sine/ Harmonica

Steve Tracy/ Guitar

I should of known better, but it still hurt
She was loading up the SUV
When I came home from work
She said things were better left unsaid
She took the TV and left the sofa bed
And she's leaving
If only things had just ended there
But there was something about that smile and her stare
As she's leaving

I didn't really notice it didn't hit me at first
I ran out through the front door
And the nightmare got worse
There looking up from the reversed backseat
Was the king, blinded by daylight, out in the heat
She took my Velvet Elvis, She got my Velvet Elvis

If you had hurt me why'd you do it like this?
If you were in such a hurry
Why'd you take his highness?
It wasn't very funny honey, really kind of chilling
It gave new meaning to Elvis just left the building

There's a sheen of velveteen, soft around the king's eyes
And the deep background gleams and makes him seem alive
Found him in Tijuana, like it was destiny somehow

There's so many times that I kept my cool
By hearing the king sing Don't Be Cruel
And just thinking
Even in the hardest times I was so serene
I'd put on blue Hawaii and see him
Staring back at me

She got my Velvet Elvis

Marie

Written by Thomas L. Nunes

Additional Musicians:

Alex Kizanis/ Keyboards

Hey You, I know what you're doing, You're thinking you can ruin, all of my plans like that
And You, Can't you tell I'm not fooling, I can't tell what I'm doing, watching you look at me that way

Do you love me, Do you love me Marie (Do you like romancing)
Do you love me, Do you love me Marie (It makes me feel like dancing)
Do you love me, Do you love me Marie (Do you love me)

And all through out the night, hold on tight, be true to me, Marie

Hey You, I know what your feeling, My poor heart is reeling, Seeing you look like that
Hey You, I think I must be dreaming, I can't believe what I'm seeing, Watching you look at me that way

Do you love me, Do you love me Marie (Do you like romancing)
Do you love me, Do you love me Marie (It makes me feel like dancing)
Do you love me, Do you love me Marie (Do you love me)

Mr. Hard Heart

Written by Thomas L. Nunes

You can toss my heart out the window, it won't bother me
Bounce my heart around like a yo-yo, it won't bother me
Because a man don't have to deal with the worry
Living with a heart of stone
And Mister Hard Heart spent a lifetime, learning to be all alone

Poor Mr. hard Heart
He's got the hardest part of all
He just got off to a bad start
It really isn't anybody's fault

Now miss motor-mouth makes it her business,
Telling you what to do, and hanging your hopes on wishes
Keeps turning you black and blue, and keeping up with the Joneses
Isn't any kind of fun, a bad, bad case of the lonesomes
Has got you on the run

Poor Mr. hard heart
He's got the hardest part of all
He just got off to a bad start
It really isn't anybody's fault

You can toss my heart out the window, it won't bother me
Bounce my heart around like a yo-yo, it won't bother me
Because it's all just one big hand out, copping you for a feel
And dropping you off on the corner, ain't no dirty double deal

Poor Mr. Hard Heart
He's got the hardest part of all
He just got off to a bad start
It really isn't anybody's fault

Mr. Hard Heart
Mr. Hard Heart

Sol Leone (Lion Sun)

Written by Chester Hogoboom and Thomas L. Nunes

Additional Musicians:
Alex Kizanis/ Keyboards

Guess you could say that it's a fascination
Mixed all around with some infatuation
Just how a look an insinuation goes over
It's probably more than I should be making
I'd trade any risk that I might be taking
Just to hear you say three words to me, come on over come on over

The summer's hot and the temp is rising
Cool at the beach thought you were so surprising
The way you smiled and looked out at the horizon
Yes we both come from different planets
I need you in my orbit now damn it
Why don't you read my mind and plan it? Come on Over
Over and over and over yea

Sol leone take this day, when you chase the clouds away
And the sun comes out to play
Ooh you're the lion you're the sun and we've only just begun

It Don't Matter Any Way

Written by Thomas L. Nunes and Chester Hogoboom

Additional Musicians:
Alex Kizanis/ Keyboards

Well ain't that like a lady? Making mountains out of string
Turning stories into dreams
I can't help but thinking maybe, someday baby
You'll know just what I mean
Cause I gave all I had to you, won't you tell me what to do
How to lie, how to steal, Do you wanna make a deal
I spend all my time this way, wondering what to say, how to think and what to feel

Whoa, Watch them all parade, Turn the corner and march away
It don't matter anyway, no
Cause someone locked the door, he don't live here any more, and it don't matter anyway

I want to see you, but you left me here
What's it gonna be babe? I thought we made it so clear
Give it to me straight now, do you want a new start?
Has it come down to this, bad dreams and broken hearts?

I should have seen it coming, words got out before I heard
Yea, I should have seen it coming, restless lives and feelings that show
It's your life it's up to you

Well can't you see me lately, could I really be that vain
And do that same tired thing again?
I can't help but thinking maybe, someday baby
You'll know just what I mean
Cause I gave all I had to you, won't you tell me what to do
How to love, how to feel, do you want to make a deal?
I spend all my time this way, wondering what to say, how to think and what to feel

She walked in the room all dressed in black
I'm tryin' not to stare, she's trying not to stare back
I can feel the pain now it's all too real, try to keep breathing
Tryin' now not to feel

Yea, I should have seen it coming
Word got out before I heard, yea I should have seen it coming

Separate lives and feelings that grow
Nothing like the feelings that show
Separate lives and feelings you know
It's your life, it's up to you

I know you're famous for your litigation
Can I tempt you with some conversation?
You are the one that lives for information, yea
I sit and listen to your explanation
I think you're warming to my situation
I can't believe I got an invitation come over,
Over and Over and Over

Amazonia

Written by Chester Hogoboom and Thomas Nunes

Additional Musicians:

Alex Kizanis/ Keyboard

Before the Steam Dries on freshly paved roads
Come the trucks rolling, another village broken
By the men looking for their gold
There's a sadness here at the edge of the world
We bring Westernization and build military stations
And it's driving out their mystic souls

And all the old tribes, with traditions that endured
Hundreds of years peaceful and nomadic
And they're still living here
Now they wear camouflage, and they've changed from what they were
All the things that used to be so sacred
In a blink, it's another world

There's a deep dark omen if their world just disappears
With the widening roads come the noise and the fears
Don't let it happen, don't watch it happen
Amazonia

There's no fishing now, and the fires burn on and on Forests are ravaged and rivers run polluted
As they greet another smoky dawn
And the politics of industry and wealth
Will steal their mystery and steal their history
And leave them living here

There's a deep dark omen if their world just disappears
With the widening roads, come the noise and the fears
Don't let it happen, don't watch it happen

Amazonia,
Amazonia

Whisper In The Wind

Written by Thomas Nunes and Chet Hogoboom

Will you watch me when I leave, can you see me there?
All my fears were on my sleeve, all I had to wear
All my wishes all my cares, will be washed away
Darling you need not despair, it's all on me anyway

Like a bright day to the end, fading out of light
Like a whisper in the wind, running into night

Old Man Winter is coming through, don't you think that it's time
That you take me away with you, way oh way up high
And I'll go wherever you want me to, far away from here
Where everything is cold and blue, with things that I cannot bear

And then one day the time will come, we will meet again
For its true this to shall pass, like a whisper in the wind

Hey now when you walk with me, take your time when you talk with me
But instead you turn away, Is there anything that you would say?
Sometimes I see a spark, sometimes there in the dark
Most the time your off somewhere with a chill left in the air, like a whisper in the wind
Just a whisper in the wind

Smaller and Smaller

Written by Chester Hogoboom and Thomas Nunes

Everything went silent, I watched you toss your hair in the white-hot wind
Then things got so complicated
Summer was our secret, doing what we could just to be alone
Discreet is so overrated

Your laughter tasted like the sea
Or like the sky and you were there with me
Just for a short while
This imperfect situation
An open invitation but not for long
And now your doing the slow fade

Sure you'll be free
That's a transparency
Making your way down Maple St.
In an early freeze, you're stirring up the leaves
Such a subtle breeze
Your getting smaller and smaller

How brave you looked back then
But this chance for caring proved a little too scary for you
Is there ever a right time?

When it's time to be leaving, you just walk away
And you don't need a reason, to fall in love you say
But I can't stop believing
Your getting smaller and smaller

Winter turned to springtime, the flowers on the hill look like an Indian painting to me
Right after the rainfall
The air out here is crystalline, daylight breaks and it's just so bright that it hurts
Leaving my dreams interrupted
I should be crying now, I got one small glimpse, just a notion of you
And I'm still fascinated

Sure you'll be free, when you want to be Making your way down Maple Street in an early freeze
Stirring up the leaves, such a subtle breeze, why'd you have to leave
You're getting smaller and smaller

Hey babe when you walk with me, take your time when you talk with me
Fire burned here long ago, but you wont let emotions show
Is the fear still in the dark, is there any thing that you won't start
In the morning in the pouring rain, I believe that I feel your pain,
Like a whisper in the wind
Like a whisper in the wind
Like a whisper in the wind
